Become a flu fighter this year!

Sonic HealthPlus will be onsite delivering flu vaccinations on:

Time: .......................................................... Location: ...................................................... Date: ..........................................................

Time: .......................................................... Location: ...................................................... Date: ..........................................................

To prevent the spread of illness, make sure you contact:

1300 339 557 OR flu@sonichealthplus.com.au to get your flu shot!

An annual vaccination is your best protection against influenza and its complications.